N.Y. Herald. April 9/58

THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.

Lord Malmesbury has inaugurated his reign at the Foreign Office by the following important changes:—

Lord A. Loftus, Secretary of Legation at Berlin, will succeed Sir Hamilton Seymour at Vienna.

Sir J. Crampton, Minister at Hanover and late Minister to the United States, will succeed Lord Woodhouse at St. Petersburg.

Mr. Buchanan, Minister at Copenhagen, will succeed Lord Howden at Madrid.

Mr. Elliot, Secretary of Legation at Vienna, will succeed Mr. Buchanan at Copenhagen.

Mr. Howard, Secretary of the Embassy at Paris, will succeed Lord Normanby as Minister at Florence.

Lord Chelsea will succeed Mr. Howard as Secretary of the Embassy at Paris.

The Times, in a leading article, expresses its gratification at the removal of Lord Normanby from Florence, but complains of the appointment of Mr. Howard. With this exception it thinks the appointments indicate a disposition to acknowledge the claims of long service and experience.

N.Y. Herald June 13/58

There is a universal move in the diplomatic circles of England. Mr. William Doria is on his way to Vienna as Secretary of Legation. The government has promoted from attaché to Secretary of Legation, Messrs. Barron, Thomson, Smith, Dickson, Manby, Buchanan, and West. Mr. W. Lowther is to be acting chargé d'affaires at St. Petersburg until Sir John Lubbock, who is to be sent to St. Petersburg, goes to Washington. Mr. Henry Howard is proceeding to Florence with the Hon. Mr. Monson. Mr. Digby goes to Athens to replace Mr. Sydney Lockhart, appointed paid attaché to Constantinople. Lord Schomberg Kerr is recalled from Geneva, and will probably join the embassy at Paris, where, I suppose, Mr. Balfour is installed.

July 1858.

The Richmond (Va.) Dispatch says of Mr. G. P. R. James, that he will soon leave for the Consul Generalship at Odessa. This event causes sincere regret among the many warm friends and admirers of that gentleman in the city and State. The Dispatch says during his residence he has made himself more than acceptable to the people.

W. Moreton Dyer, Esq., late British Consul at Mobile, has left the city for Baltimore, whither he has been transferred by his Government to act in the same capacity. On the eve of his departure, his friends presented him with two massive silver pitchers, a waiter, and half a dozen goblets.

Mr. Charles Kean has consented to provide at

NOTICE.

It is most earnestly requested, that all communications respecting Errors or Omissions may be addressed to the Compilers; for much trouble has been given to the Secretary of State and others, under the impression that the work is "official," whereas, although access has been granted to official documents for dates, &c., it is simply a private undertaking.

In order to ensure greater accuracy, it is further requested that the Compilers may be informed by each individual when any change is necessary respecting himself in this work.

HISTORY OF THE OFFICES OF THE SECRETARIES OF STATE.

THE earliest mention of a Secretary to The Sovereign occurs in the 37th year of the reign of Henry the Third, 1253.

There was only one Principal Secretary of State until the 30th year of the reign of Henry the Eighth, 1539, when the number was increased to two, both being of equal rank and authority.

Upon the union with Scotland, in the 6th year of the reign of Queen Anne, 1708, a third Principal Secretary of State was added, viz.: one for Scotch Affairs, which appointment ceased in January, 1746.

In the 8th year of the reign of George the Third, 1768, January 20, a Principal Secretary of State for the American or Colonial Department was added, which appointment was abolished in 1782.

When only two Principal Secretaries of State existed, there was—

One for the Northern Department, or Province, which included the Low Countries, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Poland, Russia, &c., &c., &c.

One for the Southern Department, or Province, which included France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, and Turkey, &c., &c., &c.

In the year 1782, March 27, the terms "Northern" and "Southern" were discontinued; the duties being divided into "Home" and "Foreign."—The affairs of Ireland and the Colonies devolved upon the elder of these two Secretaries.

In the year 1794, July 17, a Principal Secretary of State for War was appointed; and to him the business of the Colonies (which was carried on at the Home Department) was transferred in the year 1801, March 17.

In the year 1854, June 12, a Fourth Principal Secretary of State was appointed, when the business of the War and Colonies was divided.

* Sir George Rumbold's house, near Altona, was surrounded by a company of eighty soldiers (part of a detachment of 250), at one o'clock in the morning; the doors were forced open, and his person and papers seized. On the instant, he was hurried into a carriage, taken to the banks of the Elbe, and thence conveyed to Harbourg, and to Hanover, and subsequently by land, escorted by a squadron of dragoons, to Paris, where, immediately on his arrival, he was lodged in the Temple. The British Government appealed in strong terms to the corps diplomatique against this outrage, and the different sovereigns of Europe were invoked to resent it. However, after an examination of his papers (in which nothing was found to implicate him in a supposed conspiracy), and an imprisonment of three days, he was released, and removed, still strongly guarded, first to Boulogne, and then to Cherbourg. At this latter place he was embarked for England, in a fishing smack, which, meeting in the channel the British frigate Niobe, she received him on board, and landed him at Portsmouth. This affair produced a great sensation at every court.

* In May, 1848, Mr. Bulwer was ordered by the Spanish government to quit Madrid within forty-eight hours, on the alleged ground of his improper interference in the internal affairs of the kingdom. The minister of Spain, in London (M. Isturiz) was, in consequence, informed by the British government that he could not be allowed to continue at the court of Great Britain as minister from the Queen of Spain. M. Isturiz took his departure, therefore, from London, on the 14th June following; and diplomatic relations were not renewed between the two countries until April, 1850, when lord Howden was appointed British minister to the court of Madrid, and M. Isturiz returned to the court of London.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

Act 17, annexed to the Treaty of Vienna, of June 9, 1815.

IN order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d’Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

Conferences at Aix-la-Chapelle.

PROTOCOL No. 45.

November 21, 1818.

IN order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d’Affaires.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE PRECEDENCE AND COMPARATIVE RANK OF CONSULS.

Extract of Paragraph 26 of the General Instructions for Her Majesty’s Consuls.

DIPLOMATIC PENSION ACT.

2 & 3 Will. IV., c. 116. 16 August, 1832.

An Act to provide for the Salaries of certain High and Judicial Officers, and of Payments heretofore made out of the Civil List Revenues.

Diplomatic Salaries and Pensions.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his heirs and successors, to charge upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland an annual sum of 203,510*l.* to defray the charge of the salaries and allowances of His Majesty's diplomatic servants employed at foreign Courts, and of the pensions which have been granted or may hereafter be granted to persons having served His Majesty at foreign Courts, the said charge to take effect and commence from the 5th day of April, 1832.

Restriction on Amount of Grants of Pensions.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That until the said sum of 203,510*l.* shall be reduced to the sum of 180,000*l.*, it shall not be lawful for His Majesty, his heirs or successors, to grant in any one year a larger annual amount in pensions for diplomatic services than 2 000*l.* in the whole; and when the actual charge shall be reduced to the sum of 180,000*l.*, it shall not be lawful for His Majesty, his heirs and successors, to charge upon the said Consolidated Fund for any one year a larger amount to defray the charges of diplomatic salaries, allowances, and pensions than 180,000*l.*

Limitation of Diplomatic Pensions.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no new diplomatic pension which may hereafter be granted under the authority of this Act shall exceed 1,700*l.* per annum to any one person for the 1st class, 1,300*l.* per annum to any one person for the 2nd class, 900*l.* per annum to any one person for the 3rd class, and 700*l.* per annum to any one person for the 4th class; and that such pensions shall only be so granted under the following regulations and restrictions; (that is to say,)

- 1st. That no diplomatic pension whatever shall be granted to any person until the expiration of 15 years from the date of his first commission, nor unless he shall have actually served 10 years;
- 2nd. That no person shall be qualified to receive a pension of the 1st class unless he shall have actually resided 3 years as ambassador at some foreign Court;
- 3rd. That no person shall be qualified to receive a pension of the 2nd class who shall not have actually resided 5 years as an envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary at some foreign Court;
- 4th. That no person shall be qualified to receive a pension of the 3rd class who shall not have actually resided 5 years as minister plenipotentiary or minister resident at some foreign Court;
- 5th. That pensions in the remaining class shall not exceed 700*l.* per annum, under the same conditions as to time of residence.

Forfeiture or Abatement of Pension in certain cases.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all diplomatic pensions shall be subject to forfeiture in case of refusal of the person holding the same to proceed to any mission of equal or higher rank than that in respect of which such pension may have been granted, and of suspension or abatement in any case in which the person holding the same may be appointed to any office of profit under the Crown.

CIVIL SERVICE AND CONSULAR PENSION ACT.

4 & 5 Will. IV., c. 24. 25 July, 1834.

An Act to alter, amend, and Consolidate the Laws for regulating the Pensions, Compensations, and Allowances to be made to Persons in respect of their having held Civil Offices in His Majesty's Service.

Superannuation Allowance to Persons who entered the Service before 5th August, 1829.

IX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the superannuation allowances to be granted to such officers and clerks who shall have entered the public service prior to the 5th day of August, 1829 (except only as hereinafter is authorized), shall not exceed the following proportions with reference to the amount of their salaries and the periods of their services respectively; videlicet:—

To an officer, clerk, or person who shall have served 10 years and upwards and under 15 years, any annual allowance not exceeding in amount 4-12ths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office:

For 15 years and upwards, and under 20 years, not exceeding 5-12ths of such salary and emoluments:

For 20	"	"	25	"	"	6-12ths	"	"
" 25	"	"	30	"	"	7-12ths	"	"
" 30	"	"	35	"	"	8-12ths	"	"
" 35	"	"	40	"	"	9-12ths	"	"
" 40	"	"	45	"	"	10-12ths	"	"
" 45	"	"	50	"	"	11-12ths	"	"

And for 50 years or upwards, any annual allowance not exceeding the net amount of the salary and emoluments of his office.

Superannuation Allowance to Persons who shall have entered the Service subsequent to 4th Aug., 1829.

X. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful to grant to any officer or clerk who shall have entered the public service subsequent to the 4th day of August, 1829, except as hereinafter authorized, any superannuation or allowance exceeding the following proportions with reference to the amount of their salaries and the periods of their services respectively, videlicet:—

To an officer, clerk, or person who shall have served 10 years and upwards, and under 17 years, any annual allowance not exceeding in amount 3-12ths of the salary and emoluments of his office:

For 17 years service and upwards, and under 24 years, not exceeding 4-12ths of such salary and emoluments:

" 24	"	"	"	31	"	"	5-12ths	"	"

And for 45 years and upwards, not exceeding 8-12ths of such salary and emoluments:

And in no case, except as hereinafter is especially provided, shall any superannuation or allowance exceeding 2-3rds of the salary and emoluments of any such officer, clerk, or person be granted.

Conditions on which Allowances are to be granted as to Age and Infirmary.

XI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful to grant any superannuation allowance to any officer or clerk who shall be under 65 years of age, unless upon certificates from the heads of the department to which such officer or clerk shall belong, and from two medical practitioners, that he is incapable, from infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his situation, nor unless he shall have discharged those duties with diligence and fidelity, to the satisfaction of the head officer or officers of his department, which shall be certified by any two of such head officers if there shall be more than one, or by such head officer if there shall be but one; and in case the person claiming such superannuation allowance shall himself be the head officer, or one of the head officers, then such superannuation allowance shall not be granted unless he shall have discharged the duties of his situation with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Admiralty, if such head officer shall hold any office or situation under the control of that department, and in all other cases to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury; and the said Commissioners of the Admiralty and Treasury respectively shall express such satisfaction in their minute recommending or authorizing the grant of any such superannuation allowance.

Superannuations not to be granted on advanced Amount of Salary received for less than Three Years.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the superannuation allowance to be granted to any officer or person after the passing of this Act shall not be computed upon the amount of the salary enjoyed by him at the time of his retirement, unless he shall have been in the receipt of the same, or in the class from which he retires, for a period of at least three years immediately before the granting of such superannuation allowance; and in case he shall not have enjoyed his then existing salary or have been in such class for that period, such superannuation allowance shall be calculated upon the average amount of salary received by such person for 3 years next preceding the commencement of such allowance.

Abatement to be made from the Salaries of those who have taken Office since the 4th August, 1829.

XXVII. And whereas the Commissioners of the Treasury did, by a minute dated the 4th day of August, 1829, record their intention to adopt certain regulations with a view to reduce prospectively the charge incurred in providing for superannuation allowances, of which notice was given in the several public departments, for the information of those who should thereafter enter the public service: And whereas in pursuance of the said minute, an annual abatement hath been made from the salaries and emoluments of the several persons who have entered the public service subsequent to the date thereof: And whereas it is expedient to continue such abatement in those cases, and to extend it to others as hereinafter provided: Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act there shall be an annual abatement made, in quarterly proportions, by the proper officer in each respective department, from the salaries and emoluments of the several officers and persons employed in the several civil offices and departments specified in the schedule to this Act, or to be specified in the addition authorized to be made thereto, and not within the exceptions thereof, who have since the date of the said minute entered or shall hereafter enter the public service, in such manner and under such directions as shall from time to time be given in this respect by the Commissioners of the Treasury or of the Admiralty, as the case may be; the amount of which abatement shall be according to the respective rates following, (that is to say,)

From salaries and emoluments not exceeding the annual sum of 100*l.* an abatement after the rate of 2*l.* 10*s.* per centum:

And from salaries and emoluments exceeding 100*l.*, 5*l.* per centum:

And in the cases of all persons whomsoever at present holding office and entitled to superannuation allowance under this Act who shall have been appointed to such office subsequently to the issue of the minute of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 4th day of August, 1829, for the future regulation of the several civil departments of the public service, and who shall hereafter, upon promotion, obtain any increase of salary or allowances in respect of their offices, an annual abatement, after the like rates respectively, shall be made from the amount of such increase from time to time, commencing from the period when the same shall take place.

Act not to give an absolute Right to Allowances, or to prevent Dismissal of Persons for Misconduct.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give any person an absolute right to compensation for past services, or to any superannuation or retiring allowance under this Act, or to deprive the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the heads or principal officers of the respective departments, of their power and authority to dismiss any person from the public service without compensation.

RETENTION OF MILITARY HALF-PAY BY PERSONS IN CIVIL SERVICE.

Act 17 & 18 Vict., c. 121.

An Act to apply a Sum out of the Consolidated Fund and certain other Sums to the Service of the Year, and to appropriate the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament, 12th August, 1854.

Rules to be observed in the application of the Sums appropriated to Military Half-pay.

XXVIII. And as to the sum of 356,000*l.* by this Act appropriated on account of half-pay as aforesaid, it is hereby enacted and declared, that the rules hereafter prescribed shall be duly observed in the application of the said half-pay; (that is to say,) that no person who shall, on or before the 28th day of July, 1828, have held any civil place or employment of profit under Her Majesty, or in the colonies or possessions of Her Majesty beyond the seas, or under any other Government, shall have or receive any part of the same for any time during which he shall hold any such civil place or employment of profit under Her Majesty, or in the colonies or possessions of Her Majesty beyond the seas, or under any other Government, except in cases in which the same shall not exceed 3 times the amount of the highest rate of half-pay attached to the rank in virtue of which he claims to receive half-pay, or as hereinafter mentioned, nor in any such excepted cases, unless Her Majesty's special approbation be signified as aforesaid, and the officer claiming the half-pay in pursuance of such approbation shall signify in his declaration the civil place or employment of profit which he may hold or have held as aforesaid; but if the net annual emoluments of such civil place or employment shall exceed three times the amount of half-pay as aforesaid, and shall fall short of 4 times that amount, then it shall be lawful for the Paymaster-General, with Her Majesty's approbation, signified by the Secretary-at-War as aforesaid, to issue on or before the 24th day of December 1854, so much of the half-pay claimed by any such officer as shall, together with the net annual emoluments of the civil place or employment, be equal to 4 times the amount of such half-pay, and the officer claiming the half-pay in pursuance of such approbation shall specify in his declaration the civil place or employment of profit which he may have held as aforesaid, and the actual amount of the emoluments thereof, in such manner and form, and calculated up to such period or periods, as shall be required by the Secretary-at-War; but no person who, after the 28th day of June, 1828, has been appointed to any civil place or employment of profit (except in Her Majesty's Household) under Her Majesty, or in the colonies or possessions of Her Majesty beyond the seas, or under any other Government, shall have or receive any part of the same for any time during which he shall hold any such civil place or employment of profit (except as aforesaid) under Her Majesty beyond the seas, or under any other Government, other than that of a Barrack Master and the Master General and the Board of Ordnance, who shall, under the restrictions before mentioned, be entitled to receive his half-pay: Provided always, that from and after the 1st day of January, 1855, it shall be lawful for the Paymaster-General to issue the half-pay or any portion thereof to any officer appointed to civil place or employment of profit under Her Majesty or under any other Government, since the 28th day of July, 1828, if Her Majesty's pleasure to that effect be signified by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, through the Secretary-at-War, but such Permission to be granted under the restrictions before mentioned.

Regulations relative to Sec. II. of Colonial Regulations.

Art. 1. Whenever any Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary shall arrive at, or depart from any place in Her Majesty's dominions where there are forts or batteries from which salutes are usually fired, he shall be saluted with the number of guns specified against his rank in the scale § II.; and if an Ambassador shall embark on board of one of Her Majesty's ships in an official capacity, he shall also be saluted by such ship, according to the said scale, on his going on board, (and should he proceed to sea in her) also on his finally leaving her; and the same may be observed in a foreign port or colony.

Art. 2. An Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary shall be entitled to be saluted with the number of guns specified against his rank in the scale § II.; but he shall be entitled only to the compliment when within the precincts of the nation to which he is accredited; and consequently when he proceeds in a ship of war, he is only to be saluted by such ship, on his quitting her, after her arrival at his destination; and whenever he shall visit in his official capacity any of Her Majesty's ships within the precincts of the territories to which he is accredited, he is to be saluted by such ships with the number of guns specified against his rank in the scale; but if he visits several of Her Majesty's ships at the same port on the same day he shall be saluted only by one of them; and although his visit to any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels may be repeated, he shall be saluted by the same ship in the same port only once in 12 months; but when he shall embark on the final termination of his mission, he shall be entitled to the same number of guns from any of Her Majesty's ships which may be ordered to receive him.

The foregoing regulations are to be applicable also to the other diplomatic authorities of lower rank than that of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, differing only in the number of guns with which they are to be saluted, as stated against their ranks in the scale.

Art. 3. It is to be understood that salutes, in conformity to the foregoing regulations, shall be fired in compliment (from either forts or ships) to those foreign diplomatic authorities only whose nations pay the same compliments to Her Majesty's diplomatic ministers in their territories.

Art. 4. Her Majesty's Consuls-General, or Consuls, or the Members of a British Factory, shall be saluted with the number of guns mentioned against their rank in scale § II., on their going on board, or on their leaving any one of Her Majesty's ships or vessels, but this to be done only in the foreign ports to which they respectively belong, and only once in 12 months from the same ship or vessel, and to the same person.

REGULATIONS for the Examination, before the Civil Service Commissioners, of Candidates for Clerkships on the Establishment of the Foreign Office, as approved by the Earl of Clarendon, January 1, 1856.

CANDIDATES for Clerkships on the establishment of the Foreign Office, will be required to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners—

- 1st. That they can write a good bold hand, forming each letter distinctly.
 - 2nd. That they can write, quickly and correctly, English and French from dictation.
 - 3rd. That they understand French well; and that they can make an accurate and good translation of any French paper.
 - 4th. That they can make a correct and clear précis or abstract of any set of papers placed in their hands.
- The limit of age for Candidates is between 18 years complete and 24 years complete, except in the case of those who may not reside with relatives, or have an established and respectable home in the metropolis or in its immediate neighbourhood. In this latter case, the minimum of age is 20 years complete.

REGULATIONS for the Examination of Unpaid Attachés, before the Civil Service Commissioners, as approved by the Earl of Clarendon, January 1, 1856.

THE examination will be directed to ascertain—

- 1st. That they can write a good bold hand, with distinctly formed letters.
 - 2nd. That they can write English and French quickly and correctly from dictation.
 - 3rd. That they understand French well; that they can make an accurate and good translation of any French paper into English, and of any English paper into French; and that they can speak French with tolerable ease and correctness.
 - 4th. That they can make an accurate and good translation into English of a paper written either in German, Latin, Spanish, or Italian—the choice of the language being left to the candidate.
 - 5th. That they have a general knowledge of geography.
 - 6th. That they can make a clear and correct précis or abstract, in the form of a narrative, of any collection of papers placed in their hands.
 - 7th. That they have a general knowledge of modern history since the year 1789, and especially of the history of the country to which they are about to proceed, as regards its internal Constitution and its relation to other Powers. For the convenience of candidates it has been settled that as regards modern history generally, they will be examined in so much of "Heeren's Historical Manual of the Political System of Europe and its Colonies" as treats of history from the year 1789, and also in the fourth volume of Russell's "Modern Europe" (last edition); and as regards any particular country to which they may be about to proceed, they will be examined in so much of "McCulloch's Geographical Dictionary" as relates to that country.
- Moreover all persons on their first nomination as Unpaid Attachés, and previously to their undergoing the examination before the Commissioners, will be required to attend for at least three months in the Foreign Office, in order that they may become acquainted with the forms of business as carried on there.
- Limit of Age for Candidates:—18 to 25, both years inclusive.

REGULATIONS for the Examination of Paid Attachés, before the Civil Service Commissioners, as approved by the Earl of Clarendon, January 1, 1856.

ALL persons promoted from Unpaid to Paid Attachéships, before they are confirmed in their new office, will be required, if in England at the time of their promotion, or within one month after their arrival in England, to submit themselves for examination by the Commissioners, in order to ascertain—

- 1st. That they can speak and write the languages of the several countries in which they have resided since their first appointment as Unpaid Attachés; but in this examination the length of time during which candidates may have resided in the several countries, and also the comparative difficulty of acquiring the languages of such countries, will be taken into account. Candidates who have previously resided only in France or in the United States, will be required to satisfy the Examiners of their proficiency in one other language besides French.
- 2nd. Candidates on being examined on promotion, will be required to draw up a report on the General Commercial and Political Relations of the several countries in which they may have resided: on the Internal Policy and the Administration and Social Institutions of such countries, and on the Character of their People. These reports, however, must not refer to current political affairs, and they must be sent in the first instance to the Foreign Office, from which they will be forwarded to the Commissioners.
- 3rd. Candidates on being examined on promotion, will further be required to satisfy the Commissioners that they possess such a knowledge of International Law as can be acquired from "Wheaton's Elements of International Law," and "Wheaton's History of International Law."

REGULATIONS for the Examination of Candidates for Consular Appointments, before the Civil Service Commissioners, as approved by the Earl of Clarendon, January 1, 1856.

PERSONS selected for the Consular Service—whenever the circumstance of their being resident in England on their first appointment, or of their passing through England on their way to take up such first appointment, may admit of their being subjected to examination—will be expected to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners—

- 1st. That they have a correct knowledge of the English language so as to be able to express themselves clearly and correctly in writing.
 - 2nd. That they can write and speak French correctly and fluently.
 - 3rd. That they have a sufficient knowledge of the current language as far as commerce is concerned, of the port at which they are appointed to reside, to enable them to communicate directly with the authorities and natives of the place: a knowledge of the Italian language being taken to meet this requirement as far as any place situated to the east of the Straits of Gibraltar is concerned; and a knowledge of the German language as regards ports within the Baltic, or countries having ports in the Baltic.
 - 4th. A sufficient knowledge of British Mercantile and Commercial Law to enable them to deal with questions arising between British ship-owners, ship-masters, and seamen. As regards this head of examination, candidates must be prepared to be examined in "Smith's Compendium of Mercantile Law."
- Limit of Age for Candidates:—25 to 50, both years inclusive.

5th. A sufficient knowledge of arithmetic for the nature of the duties which Consuls are required to perform in drawing up Commercial Tables and Reports. As regards this head of examination, candidates must be prepared to be examined in "Bishop Colenso's Arithmetic."

Previously to undergoing their examination by the Civil Service Commissioners, candidates for Consular appointments will be required, as far as practicable, to attend at the Foreign Office for at least three months, in order to make themselves acquainted with the forms in which business is conducted.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force :

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN ORDERS.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field ; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previous to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's license and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realm.

9. When a British subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order he will at any future time be allowed to accept the decoration of a higher class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign service, or in the service of his own country ; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV and King William IV, on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN MEDALS.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy, for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, for Her Majesty's sanction ; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

Foreign Office, May 10, 1866.

(Signed) CLARENDON.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS.

1.—APPLICATIONS for Foreign Office Passports must be made in writing ; and addressed to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, with the word "Passport" written upon the cover.

2.—The fee on the issue of a Passport is 7s. 6d.

3.—Foreign Office Passports are granted only to British-born subjects, or to Ionians, or to such foreigners as have become naturalized either by Act of Parliament, or by a Certificate of Naturalization granted by the Secretary of State for the Home Department. When the party is a "Naturalized British subject," he will be so designated in his Passport ; and if his Certificate of Naturalization be dated subsequently to the 24th of August, 1850, his Passport will be marked as good for one year only ; but this regulation will not preclude any person whom it affects from obtaining, at any future periods, on his producing his old Passport, a fresh Passport for a further limited period of one year, without being required to pay a fresh fee.

4.—Passports are issued between the hours of twelve and four, on the day following that on which the application for the Passport has been received at the Foreign Office.

5.—Passports are granted to persons who are either known to the Secretary of State or recommended to him by some person who is known to him, or upon the application of any Banking Firm established in London or in any other part of the United Kingdom.

6.—Passports cannot be sent by the Foreign Office to a person already abroad : such person should apply to the nearest British Mission or Consulate.

7.—Foreign Office Passports must be countersigned at the Mission in London, or at some Consulate in the United Kingdom, of the Government of the country which the bearer of the Passport intends to visit.*

8.—A Foreign Office Passport granted for one journey to a British-born subject, or to an Ionian, or to a "Naturalized British subject," whose Certificate of Naturalization is dated previously to August 24, 1850, may be used for any subsequent journey, if countersigned afresh by the Ministers or Consuls of the countries which the bearer intends to visit ; but a Passport granted for one journey to a "Naturalized British subject," whose Certificate is dated subsequently to the 24th of August, 1850, can only be used for a subsequent journey undertaken within the period for which the Passport has been originally granted.
